

Introduction: BetTech Gaming Group

As young, innovative, fast growing and disruptive company BetTech Gaming is a technology and services provider of turnkey digital and retail enterprise wagering solutions to sports betting operators in Africa and other emerging markets.

Our clients include multi-national lottery organisations, blue chip casino groups, bookmakers and online casinos across Africa.

Based in Cape Town, BetTech is looking for the right candidate to take on a Group Finance role overseeing the group's companies in South Africa and Malta. Being at the intersection of technology and gaming the group operates in a fast paced environment and the ideal candidate will enjoy the challenges and opportunities that come with growing a young company in this sphere.

Opportunity: Head of Group Finance

It's the BetTech way to employ proactive and determined people. We have a culture of excellence where each division owner is empowered to run their own unit within the bigger group.

The candidate filling the Head of Group Finance role will be involved at strategic and group management level determining the course of the group and therefore will need to be a qualified and registered Chartered Accountant with 3 - 5 years work experience.

There are a number of exciting opportunities in the pipeline over the next 12 months that need to be harnessed and rolled out in the group's structure. The Head of Group Finance will work closely with (and report to) the group CEO.

In terms of leadership and management the Head of Group Finance will manage and grow the finance team. Key responsibilities of the finance team:

- Management of annual finance audits
- Preparation of quarterly board reports
- Budgeting and Forecasting
- Management reporting
- Asset register management
- Forex dealings
- TAX and VAT management
- HR responsibilities
- Accounting system
- Cash-flow management
- Debtor and Creditors reconciliation
- Monthly Management Accounts
- Payroll Management
- Banking
- Group Insurance

This is a key role for the group and therefore the ideal candidate will be presented with the opportunity to join the company's limited share options scheme for employees (ESOP). We are looking for someone who is driven to drive value and be rewarded for the value created. The role will be remunerated competitively on a gross monthly salary level and the timeline for filling the role is between 1 – 3 months.
